LIQUOR LICENSE CANCELED
NEW YORK, Dec. 4 (AP) — Liquor licenses issued to the nine Long-champs restaurants were ordered canceled today by the State liquor authority on the ground that the chain had permitted liquor to be sold on credit.

CASH AID FOR LEWIS
BALTIMORE, Dec. 4 (AP) — Temus (Tim) Bright, Baltimore used car dealer and former coal miner in Dorchester, Va., said tonight he had wired John L. Lewis offering to pay $1000 of the $10,000 fine imposed upon him in Federal court.

Lewis, With Two Homes, $25,000 Pay, Claims Only Enough to Meet Expenses

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (AP) — The big moments in the courtroom where John L. Lewis was fined $10,000 and his United Mine Workers union $3,500,000 for contempt of a United States court.

Before imposing a fine upon Lewis, Judge T. Alan Goldsborough asked the union leader if he wished to comment upon his financial condition.

Lewis got to his feet, his jaw thrust out, his tremendous eyebrows drawn into a single straight black line across his burning eyes. He faced the judge.

"I have a home in Alexandria, Va., not conveyable," Lewis said, glaring at the judge. "And I have a home in Springfield, Ill., not conveyable."

"Beyond that my salary ($25,000 a year) I have only enough to meet my expenses," he said.

He paused here, looked at the judge a moment. His voice grew deeper. He snarled: "But don't let that deter you. You can levy upon me any amount."

He apparently was going to say the judge could go ahead and fine him anything he liked, but the judge cut in mildly: "Don't get in contempt of court, I advise you, sir."

"Sir," Lewis said, stepping back and jutting out his jaw, "I have been adjudged in contempt of court."

The judge told him he could be in contempt again. Lewis glared. His lawyers pulled him by the coat sleeve and whispered something. Lewis listened to them, looked at the judge, took a deep breath, and sat down.

Welly Hopkins, one of Lewis' attorneys, made the loudest and most excited speech of the day. He denounced the Government lawyers request to the court to fine the mine union $3,500,000 as "malicious."

He was so carried away by his fury that he stamped his foot again and again and banged on the table. He finally wore himself out shouting. It seemed, and finished his denunciation in a normal tone.

When he sat down Lewis, seated behind him, leaped to his feet and pumped Hopkins' hand and, although some of his words were lost, the deep rumble of his voice could be heard saying "for myself and my miners."

The judge had to tell the pair to sit down.

All through the historic session the judge, a former congressman, sat calmly, a mild sort of man, never raising his voice, although he knew the proceedings in his court room would be in American history books and American law books forever.

Easily but thoughtfully the judge at last rolled out the sentence, first explaining that this was one of the most important cases in this country's history.

In short, he told Lewis: that this defiance of the court was an evil thing; that if there had to be a choice between the welfare of the mine union and the welfare of the nation, the nation came first. John F. Sonnett, assistant attorney general who did all the talking for the government, never batted an eye under all the denunciation heaped upon him by Lewis' lawyers.

In tone smooth at all times he bobbed up out of his seat to say a few brief words or answer Lewis lawyers or a question from the judge.

SAN FRANCISCO GETS SUPPORT FOR U. N. SITE

Filipino Favors Presidio, British Delegate Argues For Philadelphia Area

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Dec. 4 (P)—San Francisco got away to a fast start today in general debate over permanent headquarters for the United Nations, with four of the first six speakers endorsing the West coast city.

China, The Philippines, Saudi Arabia and El Salvador spoke in favor of San Francisco's Presidio. Great Britain backed Philadelphia and Yugoslavia spoke up for New York.

Boston, the fourth city visited by a subcommittee on an inspection tour, drew no support.

In addition to support from the floor in the 54-nation headquarters committee, India and Iraq, which were crowded off the speakers list by adjournment, said they would endorse San Francisco.

Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, of The Philippines, spear-heading the drive for the West Coast, engaged in a spirited debate with Kenneth Younger, of Great Britain, who put his country firmly on record for the East coast site.

Romulo especially objected to Younger's contention that the presence of a military center within the Presidio site would complicate U. N. plans to settle there.

"Can't we spare 24 acres out of 1600 for the graves of those who fought for peace," Romulo asked.

Romulo called San Francisco "the half-way house between the peoples of the East and the peoples of the West."

Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, chief Chinese delegate, objected to Philadelphia because of its proximity to the American capital and said "it might become the ante-chamber of the diplomatic body in Washington."

In favoring San Francisco as a central point, he advised delegates to consider the next 50 years when "Asia may rise to equal importance with Europe and America."

Younger based his opposition to the West Coast and support for Philadelphia primarily on the geographic factor, stressing the additional distance of the Pacific coast from "capitals of 49 of the 54 member nations."

The British delegate praised Philadelphia as a city with international traditions and a friendly press. He said the sites there had "elevation, beauty, accessibility and space."

Dr. Stoyan Gavrilovic, of Yugoslavia, said he favored the general New York area, which would mean either Flushing Meadows in the city or the White Plains area in adjoining Westchester county.

He declared New York's geographic location gave any site in the area a strategic advantage and that selection of a permanent home anywhere else in the world would give it a regional character.

General debate will continue tomorrow with three of the big five powers still to speak.

STELTON WAITRESS KILLED HARRISBURG, Dec. 4 (P)—Carrie Edith Beatty, 35-year old waitress of nearby Steelton, was shot to death at a restaurant today and Police Chief Oscar Blough said her steelworker husband, Joshua Beatty, 46, had been arrested on a charge of murder.

Durocher Wrecked Marriage, Laraine Day's Mate Charges

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 4 (P)—Leo Durocher, manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers baseball team, was charged today with having wrecked the marriage of James Ray Hendricks, airport executive, and Laraine Day, attractive film actress.

The allegations were contained in an answer filed by Hendricks to Miss Day's suit for divorce.

A series of meetings between the baseball pilot and actress was climaxed, the document alleged, when Durocher came to Hendricks the past Nov. 11, announced he was in love with Miss Day and wished to marry her. Hendricks claimed the shock left him "completely humiliated and overwhelmed beyond the description of words."

Hendricks alleged Durocher, while posing as a family friend, "clandestinely pursued" Miss Day's affections. He said the alleged romance started the past Nov. 6 when Durocher was on the plane in which Miss Day was flying to Minneapolis for a film premiere.

The night of Nov. 11, Hendricks alleged, Durocher came to the Hendricks home to view a film. It was then, Hendricks set forth, that he became aware something more than friendship existed between the two. The next day, Hendricks charged, his wife announced she wanted a separation.

Hendricks' answer said Durocher is "not a fit person" to associate with his wife, that she is "a young girl of 26" and he is "over twice her age."

Miss Day began the contested action by suing Hendricks on grounds of cruelty. Her attorney said today that, in view of Hendricks' answer, she will file an amended complaint with more detailed accusations. They were married May 16, 1942, and have three adopted children, girls of five and three, and a boy 13 months.

Durocher was divorced in October, 1943, by Grace L. Durocher, St. Louis dress designer.

Thoroz, Red Candidate, Beaten In Bid for French Premiership

By ROBERT C. WILSON

PARIS, Dec. 4 (P)—The National Assembly crushed the Communist party's initial bid for interim premiership of the new French government today, and prepared to vote again tomorrow in what may be a direct test between the Communists and Popular Republican Movement (MRP).

Communists Maurice Thorez, only candidate whose name was placed before the Assembly, received 259 votes — 51 short of the 310 required for an absolute majority. Two votes were cast for Socialist Andre Le Trouquer and 318 Rightist and Centerist deputies cast blank ballots.

Thorez received the solid vote of his party, and most of the Socialist votes. Eight Socialists, however, deliberately abstained from casting ballots, and 12 others were absent from the red plush, gold-trimmed chamber of the Palais Bourbon.

Tonight the national congress of the Socialist party voted to enter a new French government only if Communists were in it, thus throwing the cabinet crisis into further confusion.

The practical effect of the Socialists' decision apparently was to make it impossible to form any government. Without Socialist support the MRP will not be able to muster 310 votes needed for an absolute majority, and the Communists have little or no chance of electing Thorez on a second try.

As another condition of their entering the new government the Socialists stated there must be prior agreement on a policy of the "intervention of the state in (the nation's) economy and complete orientation away from all liberalism."

Communist Leader Jacques Duclos announced shortly after the assembly had voted that his party would continue to support Thorez's candidacy.

The MRP — middle-of-the-road party of former Premier Georges Bidault — announced it would present a candidate to the assembly. The name of the candidate was not immediately made public, but most speculation centered around Bidault himself, who resigned the post last week, and Robert Schuman, former finance minister.

The short debate which preceded today's vote was marked by a charge by Deputy Maurice Violette that the Soviet Union was responsible for furious fighting in Indochina between French troops and Indo-chinese natives.

Violette, former governor of Indochina and a member of the political group called the "Leftist Rally," said the fighting was part of the "anti-France policy sustained by Moscow."

"Most of those who attack us are themselves conquerors and colonialists," he added.

DUFF ENDS VACATION

HARRISBURG, Dec. 4 (P)—Governor-elect James H. Duff, rested after a 2½ week post-election vacation in Florida, returned to his office in the Justice department today to get down to the job of selecting a cabinet.

Army Wages Cleanup In Occupation Zone

By WES GALLAGHER

BERLIN, Dec. 4 (P)—An Army-sponsored cleanup of misconduct and immorality among occupation troops in Germany, along the lines of charges made in a report to the U. S. Senate war investigating committee, has resulted in a series of court martials which have been under way for some weeks.

Two lieutenant colonels, one in Berlin and one in Bremen, have been arrested, as well as several minor officers. Some have been sentenced to prison terms.

A special judge advocate court now is investigating hundreds of other charges ranging from large-scale black marketing to conduct unbecoming an officer.

Army officers said the investigation was started months before the Senate war investigating committee's chief counsel, George Meader, appeared in Germany.

These officers said the Army's special criminal investigation division investigated the conduct and activities of hundreds of officers particularly in the Berlin area. A CID report finished about three months ago listed hundreds of cases of black market dealings and of American officers and men consorting with German girls in billets and elsewhere.

A special judge advocate was sent to Berlin and the CID report was turned over to him with instructions that all cases where the evidence was deemed sufficient to prosecute were to be placed before court martial boards and the officers concerned arrested.

LEWIS FINED —

...out of Lewis. The judge held to this view.

Goldsborough also asked Sonnet that he thought of a continuing fine of $250,000 a day, extending into the future. But Sonnet said the government was not yet prepared to ask such a fine.

It was a day that will occupy an important page in America's labor history and also in legal history. Goldsborough said the case was "unprecedented."

Lewis' lawyers shouted that the sentence was "gross." Welly K. Hopkins, UMW chief counsel, made a rousing, emotional protest in which he roared that the government, to further the administration's political aims, was seeking to "break the union politically, financially, and morally."

Lewis got up and grasped his hand and as Hopkins' eyes gleamed with tears, Lewis said he subscribed to every word.

It was agreed that if Lewis and the union post bond for their fines and file their appeals by tomorrow at 3 p. m. (Pittstown time) they won't have to pay them until their appeal is decided. In normal course the case would go to the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals here but Federal lawyers have said they would ask that it go straight to the Supreme court instead.

Joseph A. Padway, AFL general counsel, said bond will be posted on Lewis' $10,000 but as to the union fine, he said the court could not compel the union to pay it and he himself will decide what to do about it.

A deputy chief marshal said if bond is not posted on the fine, the government can "undertake to seize the properties" of the union.

The $350,000 fine average out at $250,000 a day for each of the 14 days Lewis has defied Goldsborough's order to call off his contract termination notice—a notice which set off the nation-wide soft coal strike of 400,000 miners.

"Cruel and unusual punishment," roared defense counsel in a turbulent court session which saw Judge Goldsborough advise Lewis not to risk another contempt citation.

This occurred during an angry speech by Lewis, during which he unloaded a charge that government lawyers were "lying."

There had been a discussion of Lewis' assets, with a view to setting his fine, and Lewis said:

"Sir, I have no objection to saying that I have the salary mentioned by the government spokesman."

"When he said I had an expense account that I determined myself, he lied to the court. He did it deliberately because he said he had read the constitution (of the union)."

The union was reported by its officers at a recent convention to have about $13,500,000 in its treasury. It also owns valuable real estate, including the headquarters building here.

Lewis' face was slightly flushed and twitched a bit as the sentences were pronounced, but he was silent and impassive.

He frowned fiercely at a remark by the court that "if a prison sentence were imposed on him, the court would not have allowed him bond."

Goldsborough said he personally was all in favor of throwing Lewis in jail, but was willing to go along with the government suggestion that this would do no good, and might impede chances for getting coal mined again.

The clear implication was that the government did not want to make a martyr out of the 67-year-old labor leader whose followers are traditionally loyal to him.

"The court doesn't feel it should disregard the recommendation of the government," said Goldsborough. "In this situation the government speaks for the people."

In denouncing the actions by

Greek Leaders Sour On Foreign Ministers

ATHENS, Dec. 4 (P)—The Greek Parliament adjourned tonight on a motion that the session be suspended "as a sign of national mourning and disgust" that the Foreign Ministers council in New York had disregarded Greek's territorial war claims.

The adjournment followed the unanimous decision that a formal note of protest to the United Nations "would serve no useful purpose."

(British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin abandoned his proposal in the foreign ministers session yesterday that Greece's frontier with Bulgaria be moved northward.)

Meanwhile, an American official said a statement by a Greek prisoner was the "first definite confirmation of many reports that Bulgarians are involved with the Yugoslavs and Albanians in moving Buljok-trained agents into northern Greece."

The statement, said to have been made to both American and British military interrogators by a captain of a Leftist band captured by the Greek army in western Thrace, was reported under study by American and British diplomatic officials.

The American official identified the Greek only as a band captain "trained at Buljok, Yugoslavia, to foment disorders in Greece."

The statement, said to have been made to both American and British military interrogators by a captain of a Leftist band captured by the Greek army in western Thrace, was reported under study by American and British diplomatic officials.

Eugene Meyer Resigns World Bank Presidency

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (P)—Eugene Meyer, first president of the 38-nation world bank, resigned today exactly six months after being elected to that office.

The resignation, accepted "with profound regret" by the bank's directors and to be effective Dec. 18 or earlier if a successor is chosen before then, came as a surprise to Washington.

Meyer wrote the directors that the bank now was passing from the "preliminary work of preparation" and that he felt it now needed someone to serve as permanent head. He noted that he had been asked to launch the bank and had not been expected to serve indefinitely.

Speculation on a successor to the $30,000 a year post immediately centered on Herbert Lehman, four-time governor of New York and defeated Democratic candidate for the Senate from New York in the November election.

Whitney Raps Fines Against Lewis, UMW

CLEVELAND, Dec. 4 (P)—A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen today assailed the levying of fines by the Government against John L. Lewis and the United Mine Workers.

Whitney, who earlier this year led the railroad trainmen in a walkout termed by President Truman a "strike against the Government," declared:

"I am grieved to learn that men who struggle for a living underground mining coal, and whose wages are barely sufficient to enable them to maintain a proper subsistence, should be required to pay a fine merely because they have asked for succor in a democratic country."

HILBILLY MUSIC OUT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4 (P)—Mrs. Katherine Mae Elliott, Washington, entered suit for divorce today giving these grounds: her husband wouldn't let her play hillbilly phonograph records.

which the coal strike is progressively tightening its clutch on the American economy, the judge said: "A spectacle of this kind tends to turn the government of this country, the social fabric of democratic peoples, into ridicule in the minds of the peoples of the world."

OAKLAND STRIKE —

morrow morning did not influence the union decision.

Meanwhile, the CIO county labor council scheduled a meeting for tomorrow night, and threatened to cut off electricity, gas, water and telephone service to 1,000,000 residents of Oakland and East Bay cities in support of the AFL unionists.

Beck in Seattle called upon teamsters to return to work in the morning regardless of the outcome of the peace negotiations, provided employers made "no overt act."

"The general strike is the first move in a revolution, and it is certain that if it is not safely and sensibly handled could lead to the overthrow of government," Beck said.

Rumors, none of which could be verified, spread concerning a return tomorrow of pressmen at the Oakland Tribune, one of four East Bay newspapers closed by the walkout.

A spokesman for the Tribune emphatically denied the newspaper would attempt to publish before the strike was over.

A union truck, equipped with a loud speaker, moved through the crowds of strikers and sympathizers in downtown Oakland, calling for "100 pickets" at the Tribune plant, and coupled with an announcer's statement "to hell with the mayor, to hell with the city council."

An appeal for temperate action in the strike-taut Oakland area was telephoned from Florida by Governor Earl Warren, who asked residents not to "aggravate an already bad situation."

A state of emergency giving the mayor full police powers was proclaimed by the Oakland city council today.

The strike, which began at 5 a. m. Tuesday, left the 1,000,000 population of the Oakland area short of food, without transportation, and lacking many services such as laundry and ice.

Even as this new CIO threat to vital utilities developed, the AFL Central Labor council agreed to ease the blockade of food and gasoline shipments. Shortages in food and gasoline were apparent as early as last night as AFL teamsters halted deliveries to those neighborhood stores remaining open and to service stations.

A union spokesman, following a conference with City Manager Hassler, announced the strike would be lifted from food stores, gasoline distributors, some laundries, and elevator service in four office buildings housing doctors.

Army Shuns Comment On Meader Report

FRANKFURT, Germany, Dec. 4 (P)—U. S. Army headquarters in Europe declined today to comment on the Meader report alleging immorality by some American soldiers in occupied Germany.

An official spokesman for Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, theater commander, said any reaction to the hitherto secret report "will have to come from the War department."

The spokesman said he did not know whether McNarney would be willing to comment at a press conference scheduled for tomorrow.

to go anywhere in the world on their mission. But these organizations would report to the Security Council.

The veto power still would rest there but, as Canadian's foreign minister, L. St. Laurent pointed out, the use of the veto by any power or the refusal of any nation to permit inspection would be tantamount to an open declaration of war against the rest of the world.

Canada, Great Britain, the United States and Australia praised Molotov's contribution to the committee's work. St. Laurent said "The people of the world will be grateful to the representative of Russia for his speech of this morning."

Tryads Add Voices To Grange Carols

The Pottstown Tryads helped the members of the Sanatoga Grange sing Christmas carols last night at a meeting in Grange hall.

J. Clyde Borneman presided and selections were read by Louis Brant and Mrs. Vernon Rapp.

Tomorrow at 10:30 a. m. the Sanatoga Grange will join with six other Granges of Montgomery county to hold a day-long Pamona Grange, or fifth degree, meeting at Sanatoga Grange Hall.

The program will combine Thanksgiving and Christmas features and will include a business session. Harold Allbach and Mrs. Beatrice Smale will be in charge.

Keystone Grange, of Trappe, will present an exhibit of Christmas wrappings and the Rev. Edgar M. Cooper will tell the story of Christmas.

Participating in the quarterly meeting will be the following Granges: Valley Grange, of Red Hill; Keystone Grange, Wissahickon Grange, Cold Point Grange, Community Grange, of New Hanover; Center Square Grange, and Sanatoga Grange.

and started to battle the flames.

In the meantime, a telephone call was sent to borough hall. Police notified the Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company and apparatus rushed to the scene, in charge of Harry (Dink) Scheetz.

The company was entertaining its return servicemen at a banquet and ball event at the Eagles' home at the time and it was a case of "The firemen banqueting while a home burned."

When the firemen arrived Miss Corbett had the flames well under control. A window was burned out, baseboards ruined and wall paper spoiled by the flames.

ordinary powers were given Wyatt to accomplish his task, the Chief Executive said.

"It is now become clear that 1,000,000 dwelling units will have been put under construction and some 700,000 completed by the end of 1946," he said, adding that work has started on about 300,000 conversions and temporary dwelling units.

"The veterans emergency housing program has successfully passed through the first phase and is now well into the second phase," the President said. "Many building materials are being produced at the highest levels in history."

Now, Mr. Truman said, "the program must be given its proper emphasis in the overall economy and controls must be relaxed as rapidly as possible without threatening the success of the housing program."

The President said that in addition to steps already taken to stimulate rental housing, "Congress will be urged to give financial support to multi-unit low rent apartments so as to enable private enterprise to go ahead with construction at current high costs with some assurance of being able to earn a fair return on the capital invested at the desired low rentals."

"Congress again will be requested to pass the Wagner-Ellender-Taft housing bill which contains important provisions to stimulate rental housing, the absence of which has been a serious handicap to the veterans' emergency housing program of 1946."

Wyatt's two-page letter of resignation effective at the close of business tomorrow, simply asserted that it has been "a challenging experience to administer the veterans' emergency housing program and a privilege to serve the country at this post."

sportsman, made the presentation of awards to the players, calling each one to the front of the stage to receive a wallet.

Hunter then introduced the newly re-elected president of the school board, Larry E. Orgill, who presented certificates of merit to Co-Captains Dave Detar and Claude Reinhart and then each boy received his while the program continued.

"We are here to pay honor to a great football team," Orgill said. "One that is superior to any other in Pottstown school history." And he concluded with, "Not only are these the finest football players, but the best bunch of kids we ever saw."

Motion pictures of the Pottstown-Phoenixville and the Pottstown-West Chester games were shown as Coach Meyers handled the narration of the Phoenixville tilt and Grigg told the audience all about the West Chester conflict.

Probably one of the biggest thrills the audience received was when the camera was put in reverse on Detar's 98-yard touchdown run against Phoenixville and then run back again.

Brewery Workers To End Walkout in Philadelphia Area

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 4 (AP) — The Philadelphia joint council of the Brewery Workers union (CIO) voted today to return to work tomorrow, ending a walkout of 11,000 workers at ten breweries in the Philadelphia area which began Oct. 2 over a jurisdictional dispute, Fred Shuler, business agent of Local 5, announced.

The vote is subject to approval by each of the four union locals comprising the joint council, Shuler added. He said the union includes brewers, bottlers, engineers and firemen.

Philip Van Gelder, international organizer for the union, said: "Our men are returning to work under the terms of the contract."

Those returning will include workers who the managements reported had been discharged when they refused to load beer into trucks operated by the AFL - Teamsters union, Van Gelder said. There was no statement immediately from brewery officials as to whether these men would be rehired.

Van Gelder said a complaint the union had filed with the National Labor Relations board charging the operators of the breweries with unfair labor practices now will be held in abeyance. The NLRB did not comment.

The complaint was based on a letter from the companies, members of the Philadelphia Lager Beer Brewers association, sent out several weeks ago ordering the men back to work and saying they would be replaced if they did not return, Gelder said.

Communist Forces Roll Toward Taiyuan

PEIPING, Dec. 4 (AP) — Sweeping victories for Chinese Communist armies in five districts of Shansi province were acknowledged today by government military sources as the Red drive rolled swiftly toward Taiyuan, provincial capital 250 miles southeast of Peiping, and Fengyang, 60 miles farther south.

Confirmed reports said the Communists had captured a group of cities and villages in southwest Shansi and were pushing northeastward toward Fengyang, one of the province's largest cities.

The Communist offensive in Manchuria, aimed at the capital city of Changchun, also gathered force with attacks on Chiuchun, 30 miles to the northeast, and several points east of the capital. Large Communist forces, squeezed into the lower Kwantung peninsula of Manchuria by government forces under Gen. Tu Li-Ming, were reported to have retreated southward within 17-20 miles of Russian-occupied Dairen.

Tu's troops still held to their safety zone outside Dairen and an official military spokesman in Nanking said they would remain there until the foreign ministry approved their entry into the great port city.

General McNarney Wants War Department To Scrap Army's 'Hate Germans' Policy

By RICHARD O'REGAN
FRANKFURT, Germany, Dec. 4 (AP) — Gen. Joseph T. McNarney was officially reported today to have scrapped the U. S. Army's "hate the Germans" policy, and to be preparing to ask Washington to re-vamp its entire orientation of youthful soldiers heading for occupation zones.

An informed Army source said the U. S. policy of teaching soldiers to regard the Germans as an innately militaristic people was halted by a directive issued by McNarney's European theater command.

The directive reportedly recalled all Army training manuals, books and films in the theater tending to instigate hate, and ordered troops to help the Germans rebuild the economy and political freedom of their war-torn country.

The Army source said: "We suddenly woke up to the fact that the policy of teaching GIs to hate the Germans was out of date, inasmuch as we are stimulating the democratic growth of the German government, youth organizations and trade unions."

The officer said that new soldiers still were getting "hate the German" indoctrination back home, and that McNarney consequently would ask the War department to overhaul its education program.

An official spokesman said McNarney would announce details of the change in attitude at a news conference tomorrow.

The Army's wartime policy of instructing soldiers in the history of German aggression was intensified the past year, after charges that the Army was "too soft" and that soldiers were falling for the German line that individual Germans had no war guilt.

End of the "hate" indoctrination was first reported in the Occupation Chronicle, official newspaper of the Army's European headquarters, which said editorially:

"In the long Winter of occupation ahead, we cannot think of ourselves as Allies and Germans, but as people in what must be one world."

The newspaper added that Army officials were worried by the low educational level of troops now in Germany. The average age was said to be 19 and "in some units the ill-teracy rate is as high as 40 percent."

It said officers hoped that the new constitutional program would give the "provincial" GI a good "international" education and understanding, and would eliminate "frictions which develop between the Army and the civilian population."
